

Although Janet Jackson took it over the top, I'm appalled with the Howard Stern witch-hunt and the unnecessary backlash to our freedoms. Clear Channel has had no problem profiting the last decade from Stern and others, the hypocrits are now showing their true colors. Since the FCC chairman is an appointed position, I'll have no choice but to vote to replace the Bush hierarchy this coming election. I recognize the terrorist threat, and this one sign of a victory for them!
